But now [they that are] younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

But now [they that are] younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.
